Physical Security

Rigorous protocols and layered defense across our colocation footprint for our customers.

From HQ to our data centers, our formidable physical security (PSEC) guidelines are executed by a dedicated team focused on policies and procedures, security officer staffing, access control systems, video surveillance systems, standards compliance, physical security designs, and advanced technology selections.

Our PSEC Pillars

Robust Policies and Procedures

Unified framework supporting policies and procedures to safeguard customer environments in our data centers.

Security Standards

Combining the latest technologies and highest standards to deliver superior onsite security measures and protocols.

Incident Management

Designed, structured process for identifying, analyzing, and resolving physical security incidents to minimize potential impact.

Our Standards

Alarm Management

Systematic alarm management covering monitoring, analysis, and investigation that includes timely acknowledgment, actionable response, and differentiation between critical and non-critical alerts.

Visitor Management

Fully integrated visitor management system from kiosk registration and identification to the Csquare Customer Portal visitor logs for full transparency of access to customer space.

Customer Badge Event Reporting

Automated badge event and/or visitor log reporting accessible in near real-time via the Csquare Customer Portal.

Resilient Access Control and CCTV Systems

Redundant access control and CCTV systems monitor and record customer secure zones in real time to deter unauthorized access, support compliance requirements, and ensure continuity should a disruption occur.

Ongoing Readiness and Compliance

Regular updates, training, and compliance with auditing standards ensure Csquare is always prepared to protect our infrastructure and our customers' interests.

Standardized Emergency Protocols

Top-down resiliency standard for consistent incident response procedures across all data centers to support reliability guarantees.

The Csquare Advantage

Unwavering Reliability
Unmatched Flexibility
Superior Customer Care
